2	22, 2020 (Document No. 26). An Amended Scheduling Order was filed on June 21,
3	2021. (Document No. 32). No trial date is set.
4	3. Counsel for Plaintiff recently left the law firm; thus new counsel is trying
5	to get up to speed regarding this lawsuit;
6	4. Recently, Plaintiff filed a stress claim and currently is on medical leave.
7	This has delayed his ability to make himself available for deposition;
8	The facts outlined in the preceding paragraphs have made it difficult to
10	Continue meet and confer efforts regarding medical and psychiatric records that were
11	previously subpoenaed and sought by way of inspection demands;
14	Produced over 6,000 pages of documents. They are currently working through
15	privilege issues.
16	7. The pandemic has significantly delayed depositions in this matter. All
17	Parties have put off depositions with the belief that the depositions will be more
18	beneficial in this type of litigation if they are in person. The City still has significant
19	restrictions on employees and its outside counsel.
20	8. All parties believe that a 120-day extension on the remaining deadlines in
21	The Scheduling Conference Order would greatly assist the parties in completing
22 23	discovery, retaining experts, having further settlement discussions and preparing for
